

The Child Health Festival: How to advocate for children, influence policy and change practice

TIME	PRESENTATION	SPEAKER
08.30 – 08.45	Welcome	Ingrid Wolfe, Consultant Children's Public Health
The Importance of Child Health
8.45 – 9.00	Child Public Health in the UK today and the importance of social determinants of health	David Taylor-Robinson, Professor of Public Health and Policy, University of Liverpool
09.00- 09.20	Providing health services to our children in the NHS How can we spread innovation?	Jackie Cornish, National Clinical Director for Children & Young People/ Dr. Caroline Scott-Lang
09.20 – 09.40	Reducing inequalities in child health - what can health professionals do on the front line?	Neena Modi, President of the Royal College of Paediatrics and & Child Health
09.40-10.00	Francis Listowel on influencing parliament before panel discussion (needs to go by 1230)
1000 - 1015	Panel discussion	Neena Modi, David Taylor-Robinson and Jackie Cornish and

		Francis Listowel
10.15-10.45	Coffee Break
The Case for Reimagining Child Health
10.45 – 11.05	Integrating Child Health - What would it look like & why should we bother?	Ingrid Wolfe, Consultant in Children's Public Health
11.05 – 11.25	Health Hubs as tools to tackle the social determinants of health	Catherine Woodhead, Child Health Researcher
11.25- 11.45	Addressing inequality in primary care: the role of social prescribing	Patrick Hitt, GP interest in social prescribing
11.45-1200	Feeding the Future- the importance of nutrition for child health	Oyinlola Oyeboode, Associate Professor of Public Health, Warwick University
1200 - 1215	Panel discussion	Patrick Hitt, Catherine Woodhead, Ingrid Wolfe
12:15-13:15 LUNCH - Child Health Promise and Young People involvement e.g. choir/band
13:15 – 13.45	Get Moving - Involving children in sport and why	Sonia Saxena, Reader in Primary

	we should do it	Care, Imperial College Dr Zoe Williams, GP and Gladiator Rachel Pryke, Chair GPs Interested in Nutrition Group ?James Cracknell – awaiting reply from his agent
13.45 – 14.05	Biting off more than we chew - the burden of dental disease and why we can't ignore it	Sara Hurley, Chief Dental Officer
14:05-14:20	Panel discussion	Sara Hurley, Sonia Saxena, Zoe Williams, Rachel Pryke
14:20-1450 BREAK followed by WORKSHOPS - Delegates choose 2 out of the following 6 (40min then swap)
1450 – 1610	Optimising perinatal & maternal health	Viv Bennett, Director of Nursing, Public Health England - tbc
	Supporting adolescents in gangs	Gayle Hann, Paediatric Consultant, Lead for Paediatric Emergency, Named Doctor for Child Protection, Honorary Senior Lecturere and Project Lead for

		IBSc Paediatrics and Child Health UCL
	Eye care Screening in Children and Young People	Team from British and Irish Orthoptic Society, Rowena McNamara Chair
	Advocacy - influencing decisions in Parliament	RCPCH Parliamentary Panel Mary O'Donnely
	The sad generation – Involving young people in tackling mental health problems	Max Davies, Consultant Community Paediatrician
	Presentations for Child Health Promise Prize x3
The Future of Child Health
16:10-16:20	Child Health Advocacy Prize Presentation
16:20-16:40	Creating a healthy future for our children	Russell Viner , Professor in Adolescent Health
NETWORKING DRINKS		